MEETING OF THE WEST VIRGINIA BAR ASSOCIATION

The West Virginia Bar Association will hold its Forty-first Annual Meeting at Parkersburg on Thursday and Friday, October 8th and 9th. This time has been fixed when the weather is generally at its best, few courts are in session, and the roads are in good condition for travel by automobile.

The program has not yet been completed. It will, however, include President Kemble White's address, a paper by William Morris of the Clarksburg Bar upon the Administration of Criminal Law, a paper by Malcolm Jackson of the Charleston Bar on West Virginia Corporations. The speaker for the Annual Address has not yet been secured, but as always there will be a distinguished member of the bar to deliver this address. Particular attention will be paid to the work of the Code Commission, and there will be a number of committee reports. The banquet will be held on Friday evening, October 9th, probably at the Country Club. The Parkersburg Bar is making preparation for extensive entertainment of the visiting members and expects to make the meeting a pleasant one.
